Kentucky Revised Statute 132.380(1) states in part:

" Before any person's name shall appear before the voters on election day as a candidate for the office of property valuation administrator in any primary or general election, except as a candidate to succeed himself in office, or before he may be appointed property valuation administrator, except as an interim appointee as provided by KRS 132.375, he shall hold a certificate issued by the Revenue Cabinet, showing that he has been examined by it and that he is qualified for the office. All certificates issued shall expire one (1) year from the date of issuance... The examinations shall be written and formulated so as to test fairly the ability and fitness of the applicant to serve as property valuation administrator. "

Kentucky Revised Statute 132.370 (2) states in part:

Property Valuation Administrators shall possess the qualifications required by Section 100 of the Constitution and by KRS 132.380 and shall be eligible for re-election.

Section 100 of the Constitution of Kentucky requires that applicants must be at least 24 years of age at the time of the election or appointment, a citizen of Kentucky, and have resided in the state for at least two years, and in Laurel County at least one year preceding the election or appointment. Applicant identification will be required prior to taking the examination. A driver's license or other ID with recent picture will be required as evidence of identification.

The examination is based on verbal and mathematical skills, and consists of written testing. All materials necessary to take the examination, including calculators, are supplied. The maximum time limit for the written examination is three and one half-hours. All applicants will be notified of test results promptly.
